

SHARED VALUE
SOLUTIONS

WISE PRACTICES:

Effective Relationships with Regulators and Proponents

Steven Rowe, Senior Advisor and Consultant | June 2021

THE WISE PRACTICES REPORT

WISE PRACTICES REPORT: KEY THEMES

1. Preparing your community for the next project
2. Advancing your Rights and interests
3. Advancing economic opportunities and influencing project design
4. Collecting and using Indigenous Knowledge
5. Engaging the citizens of your Nation

PREPARING YOUR COMMUNITY FOR THE NEXT PROJECT

SHARED VALUE SOLUTIONS

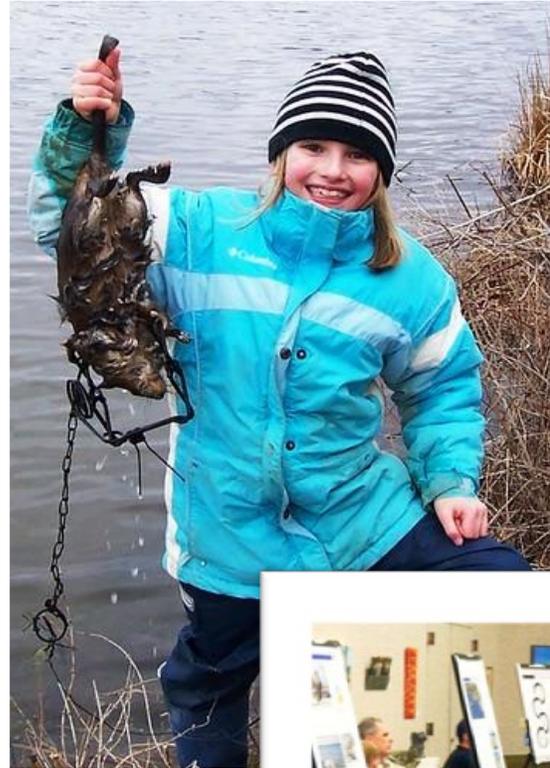

LINE 3 INDIGENOUS ADVISORY AND MONITORING COMMITTEE WISE PRACTICES REPORT

March 25, 2021

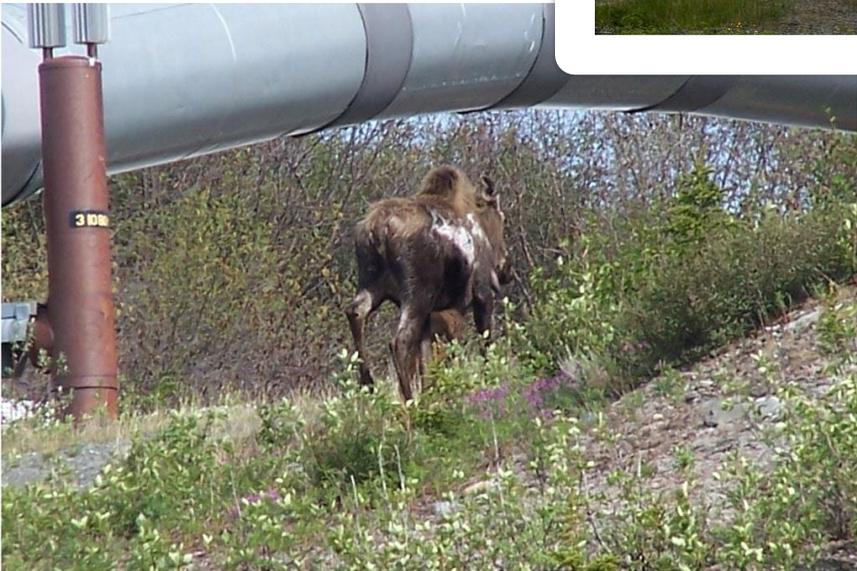

Shared Value Solutions sharedvaluesolutions.com 62 Baker Street
Guelph Ontario Canada N1H 4G1

ADVANCING YOUR RIGHTS AND INTERESTS

ADVANCING ECONOMIC OPPORTUNITIES AND INFLUENCING PROJECT DESIGN

COLLECTING AND USING INDIGENOUS KNOWLEDGE

ENGAGING THE CITIZENS OF YOUR NATION

DISCUSSION: REFLECTING ON WISE PRACTICES

Kyra Northwest, Consultation Lead, Samson Cree Nation

Lawrence Gervais, President, Metis Nation of Alberta Region 3

Sheldon Wuttunee, CEO, Saskatchewan First Nations Natural Resource Centre of Excellence

Mike Sutherland, Director of Consultation and Special Projects, Peguis First Nation

